

Ted Meyerson holds an undergraduate degree from Carnegie Mellon University, and has completed the Harvard Business School Smaller Company Management Program. He is a long time member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary; has served as a Division Staff Officer, and, currently, is the Maryland State Legislative Liaison Officer for the Auxiliary. He teaches boating safety for the Auxiliary, Howard County Community College, and Howard County Department of Recreation and Parks.

He Chairs the Commission's Advocacy subcommittee, and is a member of the Commission's Housing and Health and Wellness Committees. He is the Howard County Commission on Aging representative to the United Seniors of Maryland and serves on the United Seniors Board and Legislative Committee. He is a member of the State Oversight Committee for Quality Care in Nursing Homes and Assisted Living Facilities, and he is also a member of the State Advisory Council on Quality Care at End of Life.

He is a mediator for the Anne Arundel Conflict Resolution Center and the Howard County Mediation and Conflict Resolution Center.

He writes a monthly article for Generations Newspaper.

Ted Meyerson