Police Seek Assistance in Identifying Serial Armed Robbery Suspect Police Release Photos, Increase Reward

The Howard County and Anne Arundel County Police Departments are seeking information regarding the identity and location of a suspect who has committed armed robberies at three Subway restaurants and two Game Stop stores in both Howard and Anne Arundel County over the past several months.

The departments are offering a combined reward of up to $4,500 for information leading to the arrest of a suspect who has committed these robberies. Police are looking at this suspect's possible involvement in additional cases and are releasing photos, asking for the public's help in identifying and locating him. The suspect is currently linked to the following armed robberies:

On July 19 at 8:30 p.m., the suspect committed an armed robbery at a Game Stop store in the 6600 block of Ritchie Hwy. in Glen Burnie, Anne Arundel County. The suspect displayed a handgun and took cash. No one was injured.

On July 13 at 8:29 p.m., the suspect committed an armed robbery at a Subway restaurant in the 1400 block of Ritchie Hwy. in Arnold, Anne Arundel County. The suspect displayed a handgun and took cash. No one was injured.

On June 16 at 9:04 p.m., the suspect committed an armed robbery at a Game Stop store in the 8800 block of Centre Park Drive in Columbia, Howard County. The suspect displayed a handgun and took cash. No one was injured.

On March 15 at 6:17 p.m., the suspect committed an armed robbery at a Subway restaurant in the 9200 block of Baltimore National Pike in Ellicott City, Howard County. The suspect implied he had a handgun and took cash. No one was injured.

On March 10 at 9:15 p.m., the suspect committed an armed robbery at a Subway restaurant in the 6700 block of Business Parkway in Elkridge, Howard County. The suspect displayed a handgun and took cash. No one was injured.

The suspect is described as a black male, in his 30's, with a medium-to-heavy build, shaved head, goatee and a dark complexion. The suspect may have been seen in a small, dark-colored vehicle.

Police are asking anyone with information to contact the Howard County Police Department at 410-313-3200, the Anne Arundel County Police Department at 410-222-3465, or Metro Crime Stoppers at 1-866-7LOCKUP. Callers may remain anonymous.
