

NEWS RELEASE

HOWARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF POLICE
OFFICE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

For Release: December 11, 2007

Contact: Sherry Llewellyn
(410) 313-2236

Police Urge Drivers to Drive Safe and Sober During the Holiday Season DUI Checkpoint Scheduled this Week

The Howard County Police Department will be conducting a DUI checkpoint at an unannounced location this week. This is a proactive effort to keep motorists safe from intoxicated drivers.

With the increased number of holiday parties, the police department reminds citizens to never drink and drive, use a designated driver and always wear your seatbelt.

Howard County Police Department wishes everyone a safe and sober holiday season.

###

Today Isn't Your Day To Die.

Don't Drink & Drive.

This message brought to you by the Howard County Police Department.