Police Release Robbery Photos

Howard County Police are releasing photographs today of a suspect who committed a robbery at the Freestate gas station in Clarksville. Investigators are asking anyone with information to contact police.

Police were called to the Freestate station on Oct. 8 when an employee reported being robbed in the parking lot. The suspect displayed a gun, took an undisclosed amount of cash and ran away. The victim was not injured.

Investigators have obtained photos of the suspect from surveillance video tape. The suspect is described as a black male in his mid-40s, with a "salt and pepper" beard.

Anyone with information should contact Howard County police at 410-313-3200.
