Two Seriously Injured in Traffic Collision

The Howard County Police Department is currently investigating a collision that occurred today on Route 32 near Frederick Road. Both drivers were seriously injured and were taken to Shock Trauma, where they are currently in critical condition.

The incident took place around 2:09 p.m., when a Toyota Camry traveling southbound on route 32 crossed the double yellow line and collided with a northbound Chevrolet 1500 truck. The truck was being driven by Daniel Clarius, 54, of an unknown address. The driver of the Camry has been identified as Solyi Suh, 18, of the 1100 blk. of Rt. 97 in Cooksville.

Charges are pending further investigation.
