Driver Makes Illegal Turn on 32, Is Struck by Dump Truck Driver in Critical Condition

A 62-year old female from Stephenson, VA is in critical condition at Shock Trauma after she was struck by a dump truck after making an illegal left turn on Route 32 earlier today.

Around 12:09 p.m., Elizabeth Ann Marsh was driving northbound on Route 32 in a Chevrolet Prism when she attempted to turn left at the exit ramp from Route 70, where left hand turns are prohibited. A 2005 Kenilworth dump truck traveling southbound struck Marsh as she pulled into the southbound lanes to attempt the turn.

The driver of the dump truck has been identified as Michael Brian Hill, 31, of Columbia. He was not injured. The dump truck is owned by TCB Transport of Laurel.

Marsh was transported to Shock Trauma where she remains in critical condition.

The investigation is continuing by PFC Tanhauser.
