Teen Charged with Bringing Knife to School

Howard County police charged a 13-year-old boy today with possessing a knife on school property. The student, an eighth-grader at Elkridge Landing Middle School, showed other students the folding knife on the school bus this morning.

Students who saw the knife reported it to school staff, who called police. The knife was found in the boy's pocket and he was charged as a juvenile. He will not be identified because of his age.

No one was threatened or injured in the incident.
