Police Investigating Fatal Stabbing in Elkridge

Howard County police are investigating a homicide that occurred in Elkridge this evening.

Police were called to the Copper Stallion Motel in the 7600 block of Washington Blvd. around 6 p.m. for a report that a man had been stabbed. Officers located the victim, a 39-year-old Jessup man, on the sidewalk near the motel. The victim was transported to Howard County General Hospital where he was pronounced dead. He will not be identified until his family has been notified of his death.

Police have little other information available at this time. Anyone with information should call Howard County police at 410-313-3200.
