Howard County adds weekend hours for Disaster Assistance Center to help Ellicott City flood victims

ELLICOTT CITY, MD – Howard County has extended the hours this weekend for the Disaster Assistance Center located at the Ellicott City 50+ Center at 9401 Frederick Road. Residents, business owners and property owners impacted by the recent flooding in Ellicott City can get information about agencies and organizations that will be offering assistance with recovery efforts.

“Some people may not have had the chance yet to get the assistance they need,” Howard County Executive Allan H. Kittleman said. “We are doing everything we can to help them.”

Representatives from Howard County Government, State government and nonprofit organizations will be on hand to answer questions and to assist individuals with accessing needed services.

The information center will be open during the following days and times:

August 6-7, 2016

- Saturday and Sunday 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

August 8-12, 2016

- Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday 2 p.m.- 7p.m.
- Thursday and Friday 10 a.m.- 3 p.m.

For more information, residents, business owners and property owners may call 410-313-2900.
