Kittleman, HCEDA announce forum on services, loans available for businesses impacted by flood

ELLICOTT CITY, MD – Howard County Executive Allan H. Kittleman, along with the Howard County Economic Development Authority (HCEDA), today announced plans for an educational forum on loan programs and business services available to those affected by the July 30 Ellicott City flash flood.

The forum will be held on Wednesday, Aug. 31 in the Ellicott Meeting Room of the Miller Branch Library, 9421 Frederick Road in Ellicott City.

Those interested may attend either a session from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. or a second from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. Representatives from the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), the Small Business Development Centers and other agencies will be on site to explain funding programs, application process and timing. The Ellicott City Partnership will also be on site to discuss its relief efforts.

Businesses of the Main Street area needing assistance or more information should call 410-313-0863 between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. and continue to visit the flood recovery resource page at www.ECfloodrecovery.org.
