Have you experienced a traumatic event in your life?
Do thoughts about this experience affect you now?
Do you use alcohol to get relief?

We are conducting a research study of a medication that may help people who have experienced a traumatic event feel better and drink less. Traumatic events are things like physical or sexual assault, war zone exposure, serious accidents, and natural disasters. We are looking for:

- ✓ People who are age 18-65
- ✓ Males and females
- ✓ People of African American ancestry
- ✓ People in generally good health

Participation is confidential. You will be compensated for your time.

There are many different types of medications that can be used in a therapeutic manner when treating addictions. Specifically pertaining to opiate dependence there is Medication Assisted Treatment which encompasses opiate agonists, antagonists, and opiate blockers. The three primary medications we will address are Methadone, Suboxone, and Vivitrol. In this training we will discuss history of medication assisted treatment, harm reduction models, regulatory standards, clinical responsibilities, criteria for admission, and general information about opiate treatment.

Objectives:

- Appropriate criteria, assessments, and tools
- Prevalence rates and prognosis for Opiate Addiction
- Typical characteristics of Medication Assisted Treatment
- The most effective treatment(s) for individuals with opiate dependence
- The rationale and mechanism of action for medication assisted treatment
- Differentiation between opiate treatment medications and appropriateness
- The effectiveness of medication management as a tool in the treatment setting
- The disorder-specific treatment rationale and approach for this treatment modality

SAMHSA'S GAINS CENTER WEBINAR

Effective Programs and Partnerships for Early Diversion

May 30, 2019, 2-3:30 p.m. ET

Effective community strategies for diverting people with mental and substance use disorders from unnecessary criminal justice involvement and hospital emergency department use require planning across multiple systems.

In this webinar, "Effective Programs and Partnerships for Early Diversion," three jurisdictions will share information on how cross-systems partnerships and coordinated programming have enabled diversion of people with mental and substance use disorders away from criminal justice involvement and into treatment and services. Presenters from behavioral health and criminal justice systems will discuss successful approaches to diverting people with co-occurring disorders at multiple stages of contact with the justice system.

PORTRAITS OF PROFESSIONAL

caregivers

THEIR PASSION. THEIR PAIN.

A FILM ABOUT THE EMOTIONAL IMPACT ON PROFESSIONALS WHO CARE FOR OTHERS.

Through dramatic personal stories of social workers, therapists, nurses, doctors, hospice staff, medics, firefighters, and the police, CAREGIVERS film probes the emotionally risky aspects of caring for traumatized people. We ask the question: How is the care provider affected emotionally and physically, and who helps our helpers?

Please join the Howard County Police Department Mental Health Section and the Crisis Intervention Team 2019-2 Training Class for a community screening of the film "Portraits of Professional Caregivers" at Howard Community College. Admission is free and open to all who make their livelihood by serving others including our medical/mental health professionals and first responders.

A facilitated group discussion will be held immediately following the movie which will provide a valuable opportunity for collaborative learning and support. 3 CEUs will be available at no cost.

"Tall Cop Says Stop"

Substance Misuse Prevention Training

DESCRIPTION

This workshop is for law enforcement, probation officers, school administration, treatment providers and counselors. This session is unique, in that it provides over 120 visual aids for attendees to hold and become familiar with. In today's culture everything is person-specific and has different meanings to different individuals. For each person to help prevent youth and adult substance abuse, you MUST know what is going on in your community.

These new trends are very popular and it is important for all who are involved in prevention, education, treatment or enforcement to understand these sweeping changes in the drug culture.

TOPICS COVERED IN TRAINING

This workshop covers alcohol and drug clothing, alcoholic energy drinks, alcopops, alcohol and drug concealment methods and containers, drug paraphernalia, drug related music and groups, logos, stickers, new technology, youth party tendencies, party games, non-traditional alcoholic beverages, social networking sites, synthetic drugs, OTC drugs, inhalants, concentrates, E-cigarettes, and popular party drugs.
