Driver in October collision in Clarksville dies of injuries

Howard County police have been notified that a driver involved in a collision last month in Clarksville, Laurence Hunter, 89, of Dayton, died at the hospital on Nov. 7 as a result of his injuries.

At approximately 4:58 p.m. on October 25, the 2002 Toyota Avalon driven by Hunter was traveling northbound on Ten Oaks Road just past Smallwood Court when it left the roadway for an unknown reason and struck a utility pole. Hunter, the sole occupant in the vehicle, was transported to the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center in critical condition.

Ten Oaks Road was closed for approximately four hours. The investigation is ongoing.
