Police seek public's help to locate missing Columbia boy

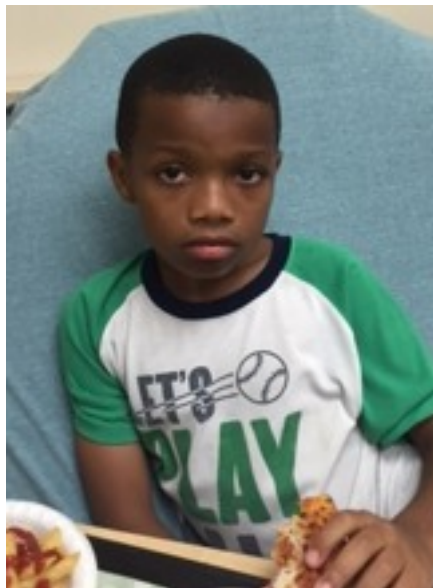

Howard County police are seeking the public's help to locate a missing nine-year-old boy from Columbia.

De'vonte Terrence Mauric Jordan was last seen leaving his residence in the 9400 block of Two Hills Court at approximately 6:30 p.m. after a disagreement with a family member.

Jordan's family alerted police, who are concerned for his welfare due to his age. Officers, aviation and K9 have been searching for the boy but have not yet located him.

Jordan is described as a black male, four feet six inches tall, 61 pounds, with black hair and brown eyes. He was last seen wearing a blue t-shirt with the writing "Champ Camp," black shorts and blue shoes.

Anyone with information should call 911.
