Police investigating fatal pedestrian collision

The Traffic Enforcement Section is investigating a fatal motor vehicle collision involving a pedestrian that occurred on Friday, Oct. 16, 2015 at approximately 8:21 p.m.

A 2009 Toyota Corolla was travelling northbound on Washington Boulevard at Loudon Avenue when it struck a pedestrian attempting to cross Washington Boulevard.

The pedestrian was pronounced dead on scene. He has been identified as Vernon Edward Anderson, 47, of Elkridge.

The driver of the Corolla was not injured and has been identified as Arthur Stuart Rogers, 54 of Reisterstown.

Preliminary investigation revealed pedestrian error contributed to the collision. The investigation is continuing.
