

Camp Came to Me Lil' Campers Family Overnight

Activity	Date and Time	Description
Camp Materials Kit Pick-Up	Saturday, June 27th between 9am and 11am	Pick up all the materials needed for the program at Robinson Nature Center
Live "Camp Came to Me" Session (WebEx online meeting & materials from kit)	Saturday, June 27th at 6pm	Join us on WebEx to make Film Canister Rockets! We'll also go over program activities and kit contents to get you excited for your camp out!
Camping 101 (pre-recorded video)	At your convenience (we recommend watching after the live session)	Join us to explore the basics of camping shelters (tents, forts, etc), as well as campfire building and safety.  Set up your camping shelter and campfire along with us at home! We provide options that can be used for both indoor and outdoor camping.
Bear's First Campout Puppet Show (pre-recorded video)	At your convenience	Join a slightly nervous bear who is learning why he shouldn't be afraid to camp out.
Night Sky Presentation (pre-recorded video & Constellations worksheet)	At your convenience (we recommend watching when the stars are out, so you can go outside to search for the constellations mentioned in the program)	We'll present what you can see in the sky tonight. Download the Sky View App to your device to look for constellations outdoors.
Crafts (materials from kit & printed instructions)	At your convenience	Make an adorable owl and decorate a mason jar to collect lightening bugs.
Outdoor Activities (materials from kit & printed instructions)	At your convenience (we recommend these activities outside at night, but for earlier bedtimes, feel free to turn off the lights inside!)	Put your lightening bug jar to use. Explore the "eye shine" of five different animals and play a flashlight game.
Camping Recipes (optional, printed instructions)	Optional (click here for recipes) if you want to purchase ingredients ahead of time	Recipes include tinfoil dinners, breakfast granola smores and cinnamon rolls on a stick.
