

Opioids in Howard County – It’s Not Just an Urban Issue – A Call to Action

Let’s Raise Awareness and Reduce Shame & Stigma to Get People into Treatment

9:00	Welcome	Mr. Ryan Miller Director, Howard County Office of Emergency Management Mr. Clay B. Stamp Executive Director Opioid Operational Command Center
9:15	Opening Remarks	The Honorable Mr. Allan Kittleman Howard County Executive
9:30	Our Story <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Statistics &amp; Geographic distribution</li> <li>• Various Activities Underway</li> <li>• Struggles &amp; Gaps to Solving the Problem</li> </ul>	Mr. Carl Delorenzo Director of Policy &amp; Programs Howard County Government
10:00	Opioids - A Glimpse Across Our Community” A diverse panel including families, Howard County General Hospital, a treatment provider, a recovery house, and a peer-recovery staff person provide a real-face to the crisis and how it impacts families and the community. Time includes questions and answers from the audience.	Dr. Matthew Levy Medical Director Howard County Fire &amp; Rescue
11:15	A Call to Action – What Can You Do? “ Own Medication Lock Box / Medication Drop Box Know the Resources: Provider Resource Lists Available Naloxone Training &amp; Standing Orders Available Help Us Amplify Our Message: follow us &amp; others on social media and share information Consider the Medications You Are Taking	Dr. Maura Rossman Health Officer Howard County Health Department
11:40	Naloxone Training Optional – for those who wish to attend	Ms. Seante Hunt Coordinator Overdose Response Program Howard County Health Department